17. ABSTRACT (MAX. 250 WORDS)
The introduction of pronouns is continued. "Him" and "her" along with the possessive "s" are introduced. Through the introduction of the possessive case, the lesson also contributes to the development of the characters who appear in this and earlier lessons. Information about the characters is presented. For example, picture association shows the house to be the man's. This fact then becomes part of the vocabulary. "His," "her," and "he" are associated phonetically.
